Home Show 2015

There are still a few booths open for the Home Show. If your interested please contact the office at 724-349-2327.

Dear Members:

It has been an honor to serve as your President in 2014. It has been interesting seeing what goes on at the State level and how much influence the builders have when they band together and fight issues in Harrisburg. Warren Peter was instrumental with his testimony in getting the time and material provision added to the HIC. Members from the East spent a lot of time getting the buffer bill changed.

Our membership has remained steady in the 150's. Our Home Show was successful and generated a lot of business for our members. We had many of our members join the Pennsylvania Builders Workers Compensation Insurance plan and are saving many dollars by doing so.

Please continue to support our industry by being active in the Indiana-Armstrong Builders Association. Thanks again and have a busy winter.

November riddle winners:

Sylvio Corte of Corte Masonry

Margaret Ostach of Appleridge Stone

Christopher Shirley of the ICTC

November correct answer: 8December riddle

Sylvio Corte is tired of the math riddles, so he sent the following rules of golf questions.

1. Bill Kopchick was angry after three-putting in a tournament, he walked off the green, grabbed his 5-iron and hit his ball into the woods. Sylvio says he should be penalized two strokes for practicing. Is Sylvio right?
2. Steve Misner used a broken tee for his tee shot on a par 3. Ed Rombach says that Steve deserved a penalty for using someone else's equipment. Is Ed correct?
3. Warren Peter's driver head flew off in the middle of his swing. Although the head never touched the ball, he did complete the swing. Does it still count as a stroke if equipment failure caused his whiff?
4. Rod Greczek, after marking his ball on the green, tossed the ball to his caddie. But, Smiley wasn't looking, and the ball rolled into a pond. Rod finished the hole with another ball. Mark Swatsworth says that Rod should be penalized for not completing the hole with the same ball. Is Mark right?

The first 3 winners will receive a either a ball marker or divot repair tool.
